The Way

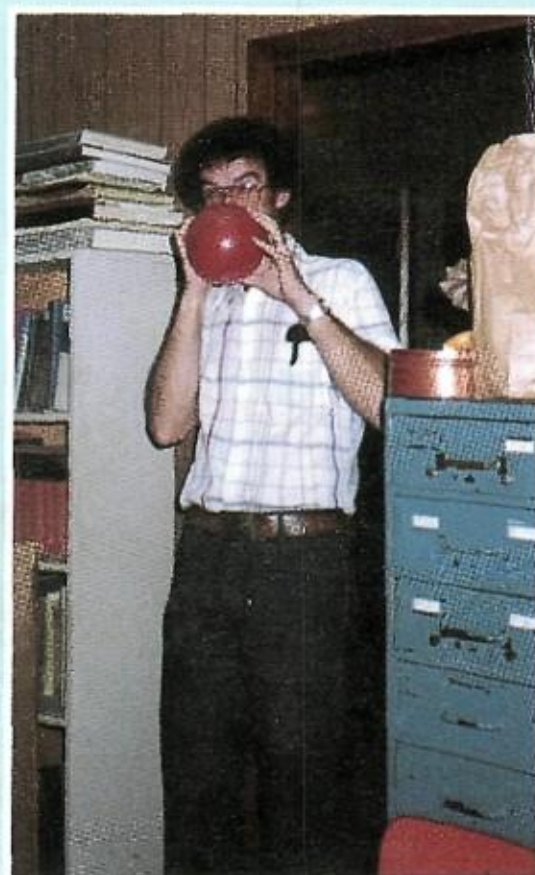

... at the hop.

... in yellow.

... at the Fall Festival.

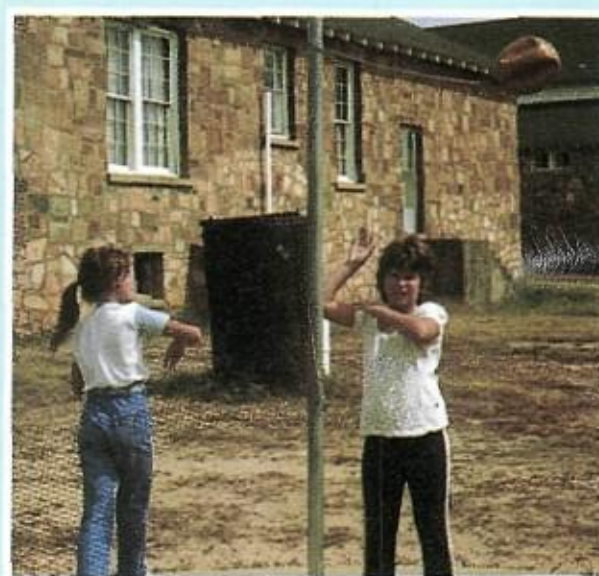

... blowing it out of proportion.

2 ... getting to know each other.

... in grade school.

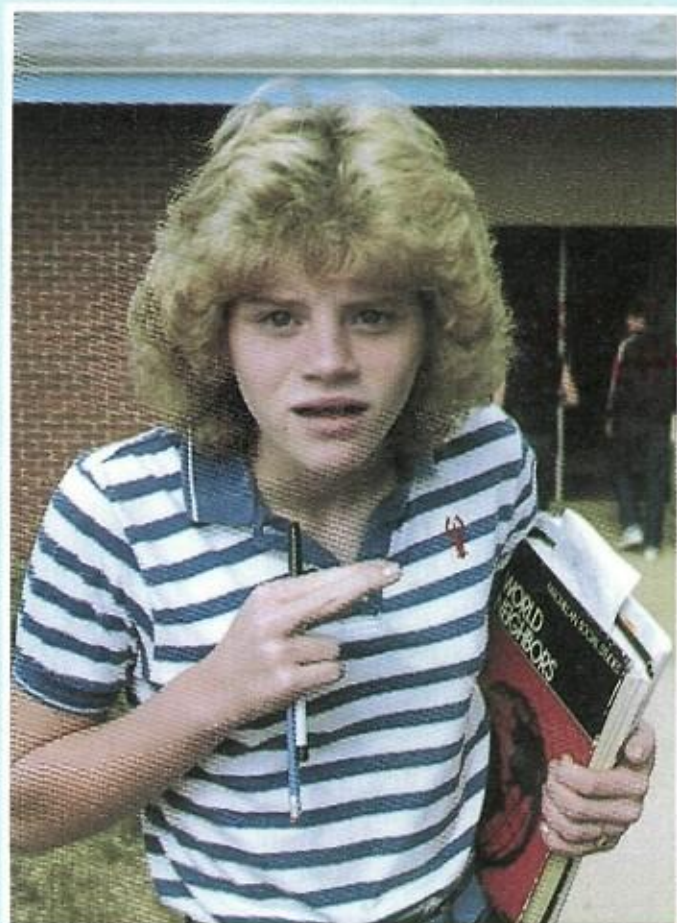

... in tough competition.

We Were . . .

... in the marriage booth.

... after a long day's work.

... discussing fire safety rules.

... when Teresa and Lisa were always smiling.

... when we were friends.

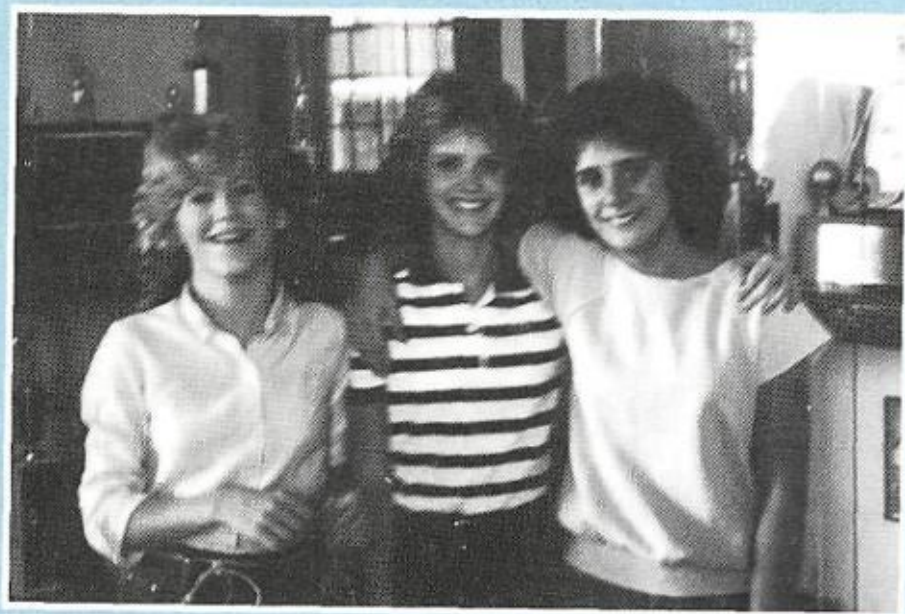

... on the playground.

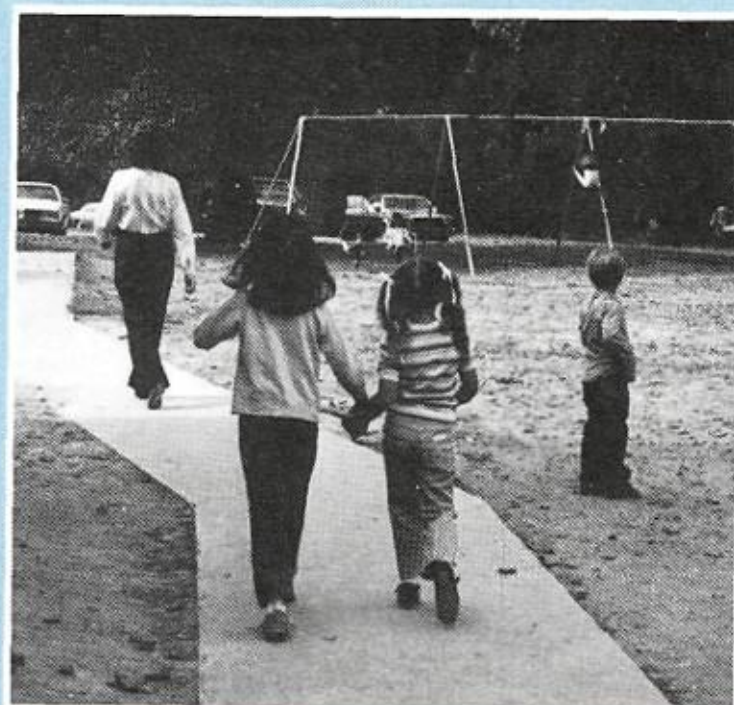

... dressed as graduates.

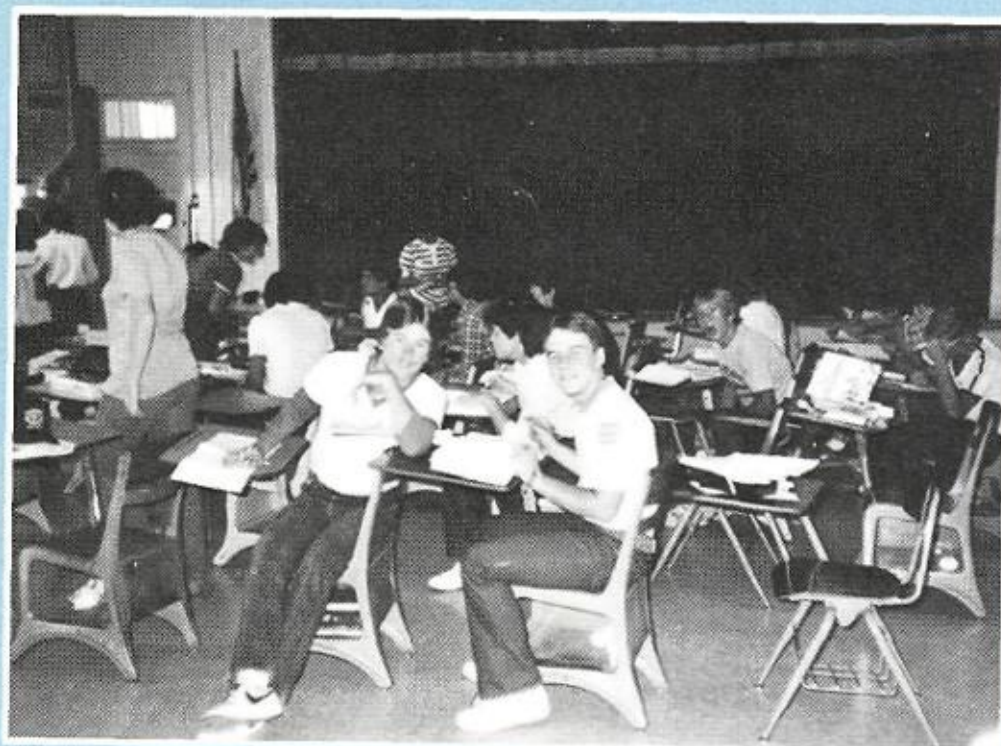

The Way

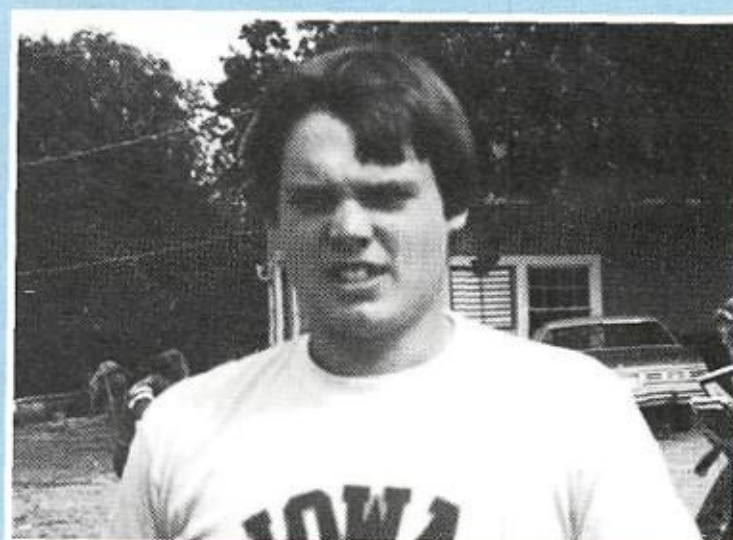

The three stooges.

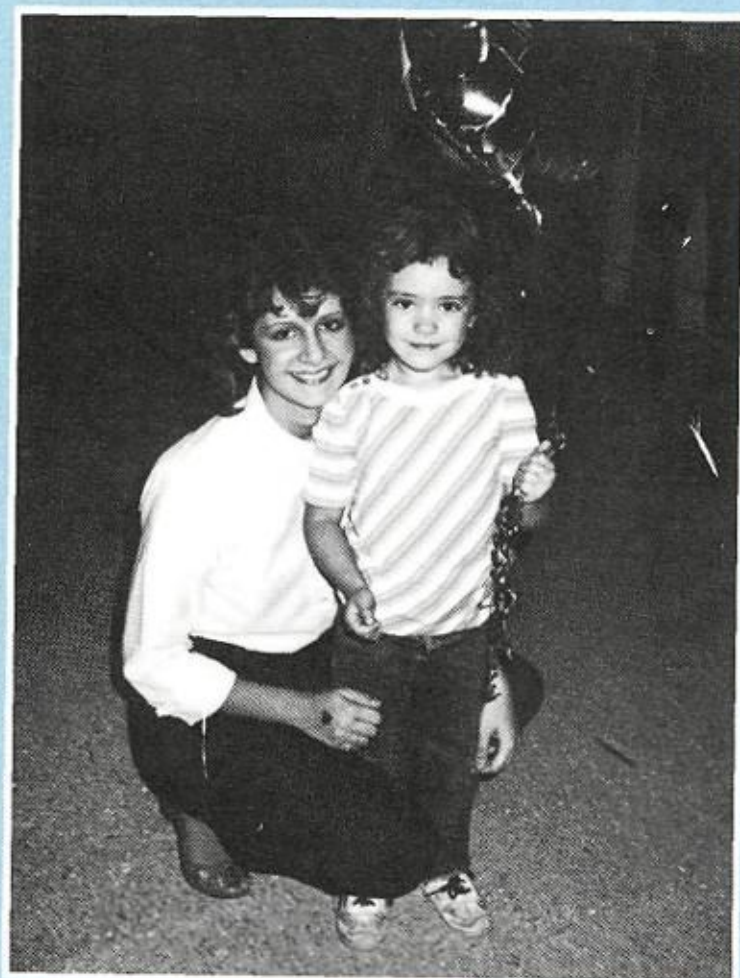

Happiness is . . . Friends.

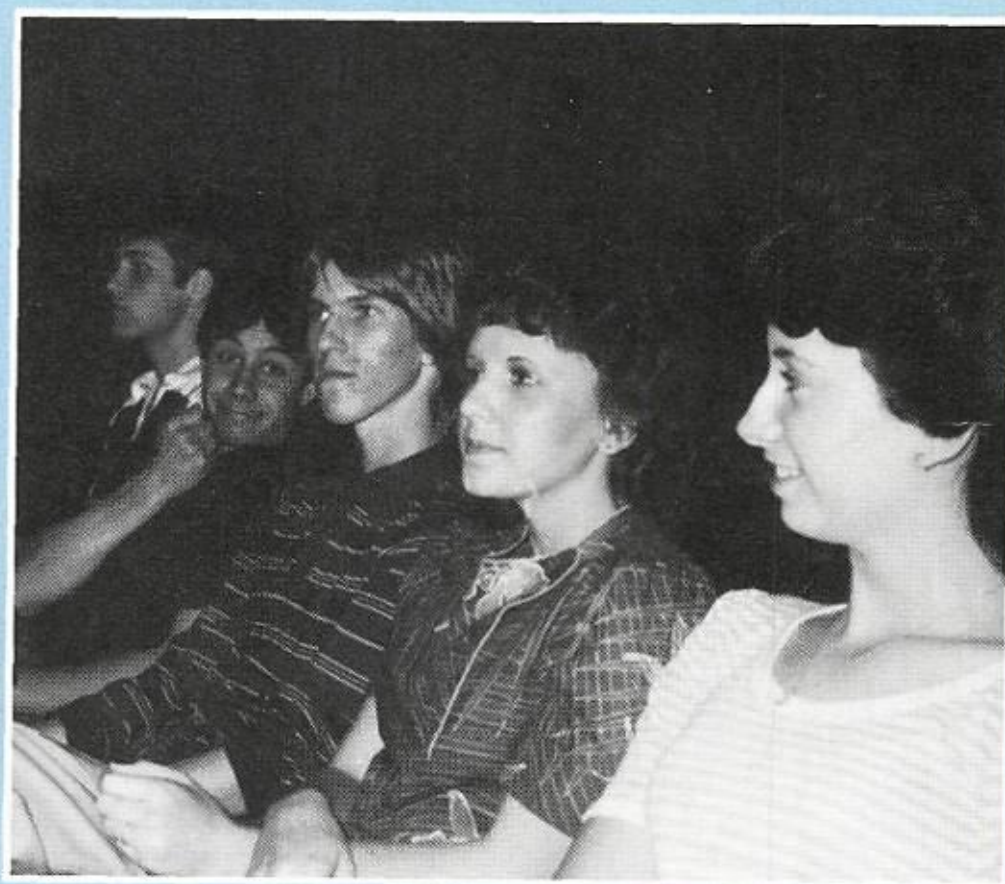

Todd and Tim studying?

"Bull" on the loose.

Aren't we cute?

Gammon fighting for attention.

We Were . . .

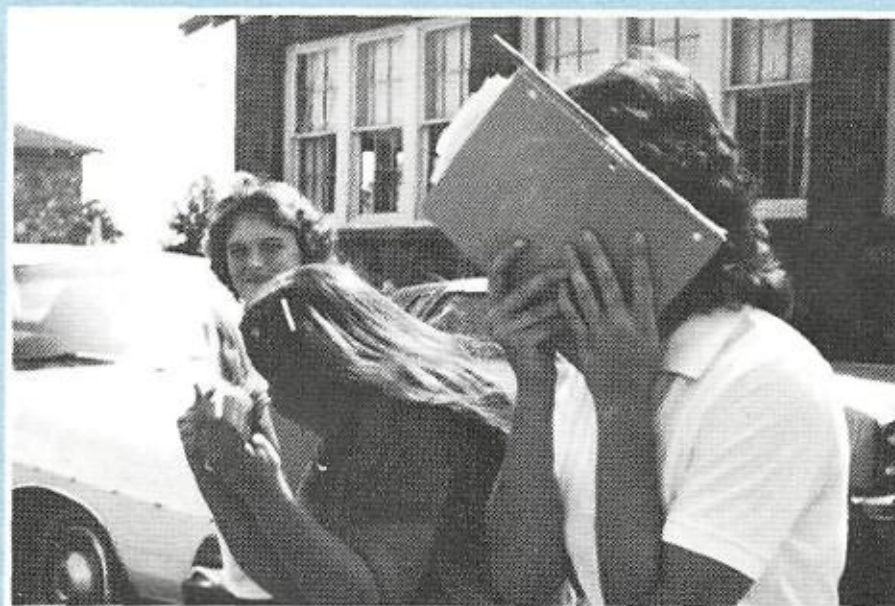

Now, what can I get into next?

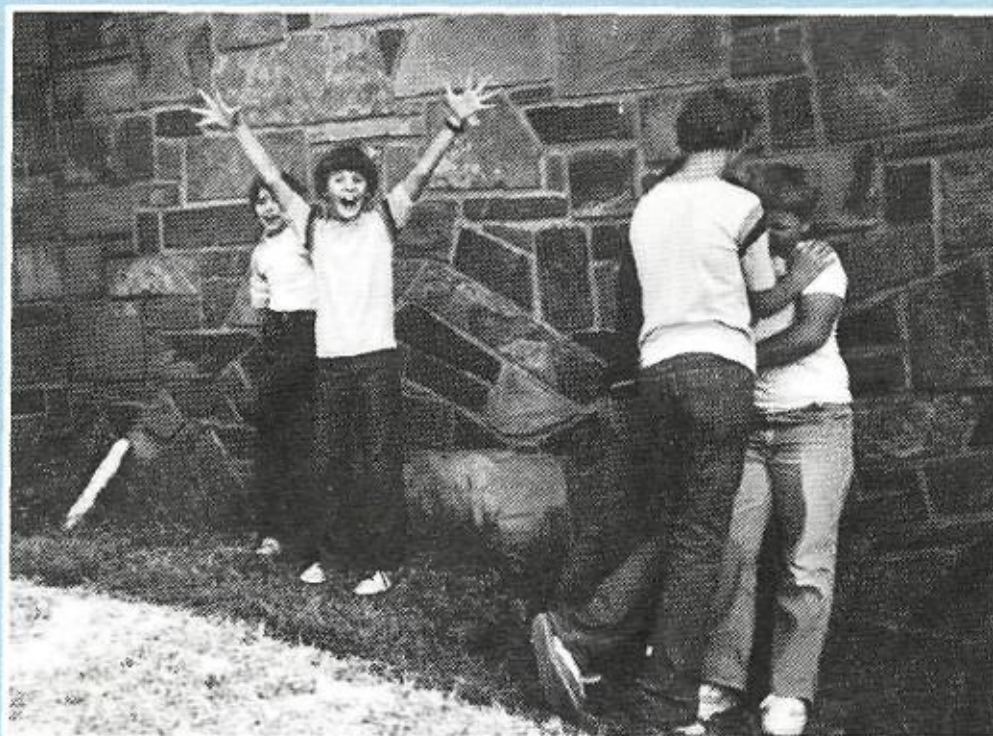

Scotty acting innocent and Jeff playing dumb.

Once upon a time . . .

What have you got to hide, Terrie?

HELP! Someone call the police.

Did you see what I saw?

The Way

... when Cathy couldn't decide who she wanted to be.

... when we were just a swinging.

... when Scotty was feeling big.

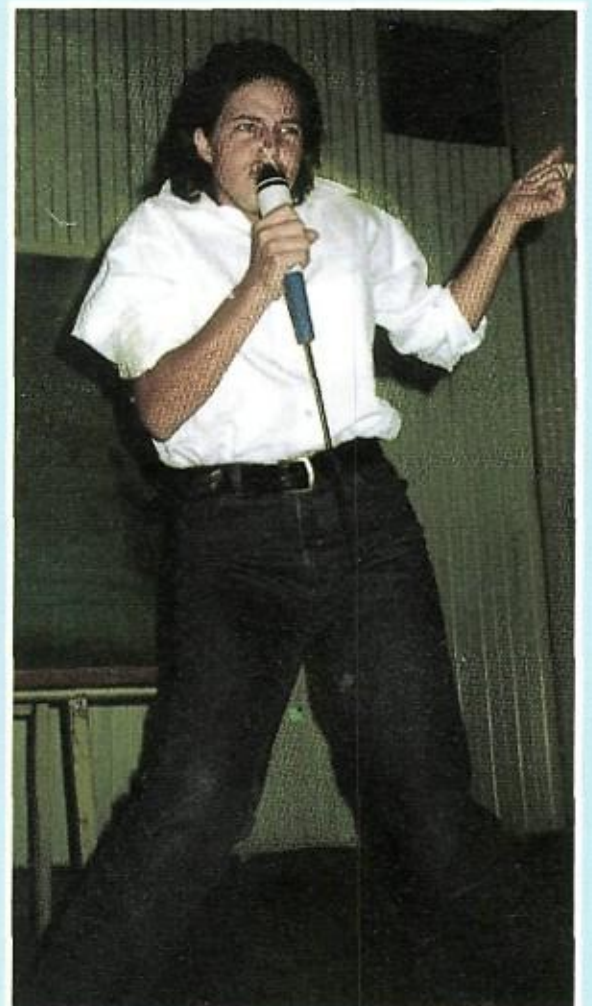

... when Mrs. Ward got wet in the dunking booth. ... when Dee didn't know what to do next.

... when Lisa finally decided to do her homework.

... when we were in the county parade.

... when Sonya was "getting down."

We Were . . .

... at recess.

... when Regina gave Keith dancing lessons.

... when Alice sang for the F.H.A.

... when we practiced bus safety.

... when Sandy was proud of her bugs.

... when Mrs. Burgess helped with the senior pictures.

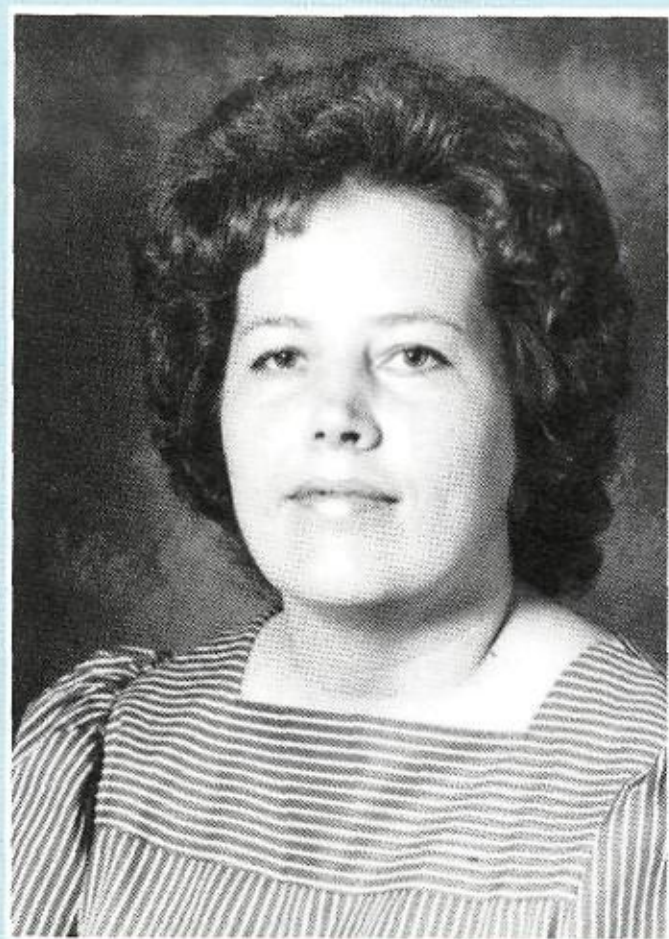

... when Brenda wanted to be a cowgirl.

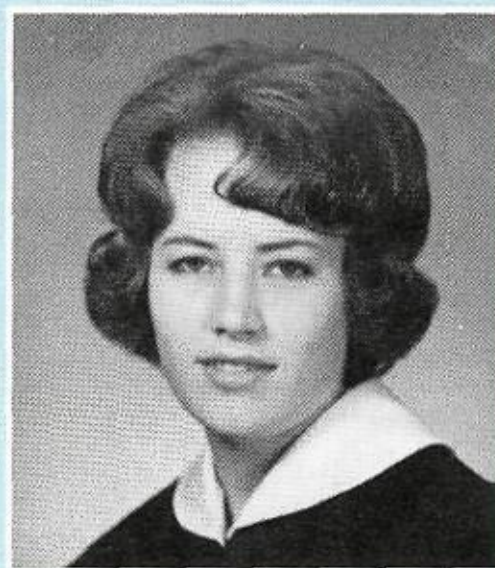

... when Billy was looking suspicious.

Superintendent's Message

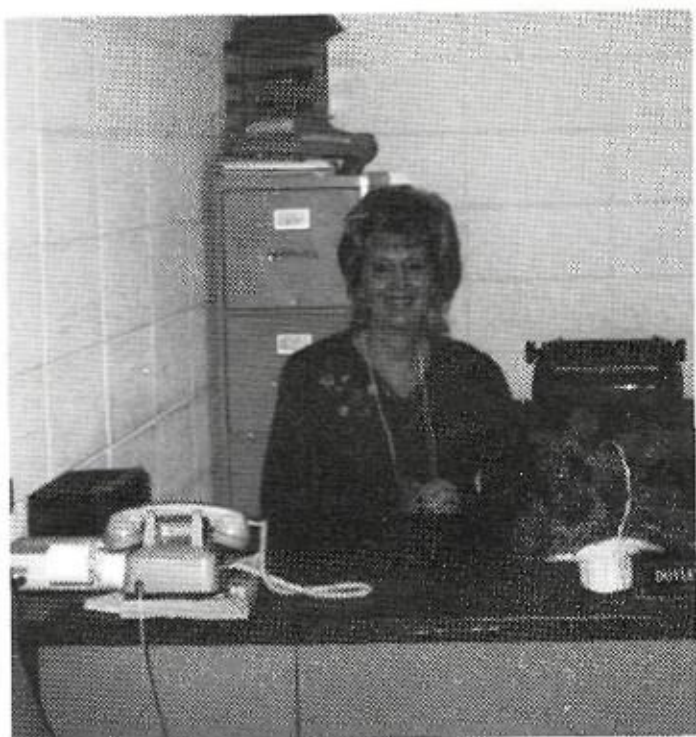

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the annual staff and sponsor for compiling this pictorial history of the 1983-84 school year. Many memories and wonderful experiences will be brought to mind as we look through these pages in years to come. As we bid farewell to the seniors of 1984, I wish each of you a happy and productive life. Your education at South Side High School was only the beginning of a long learning experience called "life."
